Details of the Nature of the Prize to the Winner of the Raffle of the " Denton African American Scholarship Fund " DAAS on January 27, 2019

The prize:

A quilt described by the following statement provided by the internationally acclaimed artist, Barbara Ann McCraw is as follows:

Black film has also been a part of my life since childhood. We were drawn to the television like a magnet when a black person was on the screen ... [For this quilt] Many hours were spent watching old films and doing research before starting on this quilt ... I decided to make a similar stage, but using black suede silhouettes of Black actors, singers and dancers demonstrating their craft. The stage shows the shiny, polished boards of a theater floor, and the beams of stage lights radiate from above ... And now, as the last stitch has been sewn, I present to you, "The Entertainers".
